Book Descriptions:

contender owners manual

We thank you for your patience as we help you access the new site! If that is true I have a thousand questions and I will start with one now. Where is the waste holding tank. Please add questions as you please and please post anything a new owner might need to know about a Contender. Pumpout on mine is to starboard, near the fuel fill, just outboard of the top of the gunwale. Its on a nearly vertical surface. The pumpout which I havent used either on my 2005 25S is on the port gunwale just forward of the euro transom. My waste pumps out on the starboard side in the rear just below the bilge outlet. The pump out is on the port side rear gunnel. The holding tank is just forward of the bilge hatch. Have you figured out the live well yet Thanks for choosing Contender and we look forward to helping you get many years of useful service out of your boat. I had forgotten that I had one that was a hand me down in the back of the safe, but haven't been able to run on down on the interwebs. Want to get it up and going for yet another way to spend money on guns. I am calling TC this morning but thought somebody might have one handy. TIA There is a Thompson Center Contender listed as well two G2s. Mine must be an even earlier model, doesn't match the contender listed. I have about 5 I wouldn't mind parting with. Most of my scopes are Burris LER. As of right now, I do know I want to sell a 375JDJ, 222rem mag Ackley, and possibly a 300 savage. I will have to count, but I have a lot of brass do each.
